

DMLEK's Chairman Public Meeting in Des Moines, Iowa - USA

Democratic Movement for the Liberation of the Eritrean Kunama DMLEK's Chairman; Kornelios Osman Aggar has conducted a successful public meeting in Des Moines, Iowa - USA on Sunday, May 10, 2015. The meeting was attended by more than 120 residents including men, women and youths.

After the participants paid attention for a minute in respect to the martyrs who sacrificed their life for the sake of their people, DMLEK's Chairman Kornelios Osman has brought three points to discussion and action. They were:-

1. DMLEK's General Organizational News
2. DMLEK's Stands on Some Points
3. Adjusting the Administrative Structure for the DMLEK Members in Iowa State.

DMLEK Chairman Kornelios Osman has briefed the current situation of Kunama people living inside Eritrea, Sudan and Ethiopia in respect to their relationship with DMLEK's activities and their strengths and weaknesses in keeping the Kunama unity. Here the Chairman has briefed more on the level of the Kunama liberation struggle and pinpointed what is left in the future. He also made clear that DMLEK has good diplomatic relationship with Ethiopian and Sudanese governments. Finally, Kornelios has explained the changes and situations on Eritrean opposition groups and their obstacles in the liberation struggle of our people.

Concerning about the stands of its organization, the DMLEK Chairman; Kornelios Osman Aggar has clearly put that its ethnic based organization and the principle of 'self-determination up to secession' will not be changed as far as they respect the needs of our kunama people. As a result it will be advantageous to us to continue participating in Eritrean Politics in the principle of give and take.

On other hand, the DMLEK Chairman has briefed the graces and advantages as well as the challenges of establishing Kunama community there. At the time he discussed on educational matters and has suggested that the Kunama youths should study to their best while they are here in USA to help for themselves and their people. In this case the community to be established has to help them with the collaboration of the parents.

The participants have also discussed that PFDJ forums and gatherings are dangerous and negates our advantages and have decided to not participate in such gatherings of PFDJ.

Finally, DMLEK Chairman; Kornelios Osman has discussed concerning about the administrative structure of Iowa State. After the discussion, they elect nine Iowa State Committee members and nine leaders of youth, women and patriotic associations. The participants have discussed thoroughly and have assured their readiness to change their decisions into action. The meeting was vibrant and cheerful and concluded successfully.

WE WILL BRING OUR KUNAMA LIBERATION STRUGGLE TO THE END AS WE STARTED IT!!
THE PRINCIPLES OF DMLEK SHALL FLOURISH FOREVER!!
